

Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI)

Scope:

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulation, 2015, inter alia, mandates all listed companies to establish a code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and a code to regulate monitor and report trading by its Designated Persons and immediate relatives of Designated Persons.

Accordingly, this Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider trading ("the Code") has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for regulating, monitoring and reporting of Trading by Designated Persons and immediate relatives of Designated Persons and for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

1. Preservation of —Price Sensitive Information

1.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Any person/ parties with whom UPSI is shared for Legitimate Purpose, shall keep the information so received confidential, except for legitimate purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Explanation – The term "legitimate purpose" shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, analysts, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which would:

- (a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- (b) Not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitutes unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- (c) (i) For the purpose of (a) and (b) above, the Board of Directors or any officer authorized by the Board shall, require such person/ parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such person/ parties.
- (ii) In other cases the Board of Directors (or such officer as may be authorized by the Board shall maintain list of all employees and other persons with whom UPSI is shared and shall either execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such person/ parties or serve notice to all such employees and such person/ parties for confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations.

1.2 Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.

1.3 The board of directors or such other person as may be authorised by the Board in this behalf, shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be, with whom information is shared under this Code along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.

Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

1.4 The Compliance officer, or such other officer as authorized by the board in this matter, shall conduct periodic process review to evaluate the effectiveness of the procedure established under this Code.

1.5 The Audit Committee of the Board shall review the compliance with the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and verify the operative effectiveness of this Code, at least once in a financial year

1.6 Need to Know:

(i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duties and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

(ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department and the Compliance Officer.

1.7 Limited access to confidential information (Chinese Wall)

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure by the head of the department. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

2. Prevention of misuse of —Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

2.1. Designated Persons and immediate relatives of Designated Persons of the Company shall be governed by this code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

2.2. No insider shall trade in securities of the Company that are listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation —When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances as laid down under the, SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time.

2.3. In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on SEBI.

3. Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

3.1. Trading Plan shall:

(i) Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) Not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

(iii) Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

3.2. The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

3.3. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

3.4. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

4. Trading Window and Window Closure

4.1. (i) The trading period, i.e. trading period of the stock exchanges, called "trading window," is available for trading in the Company's securities by the Designated Persons.

(ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.

(iii) When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period.

(iv) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

(v) The Compliance Officer shall after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

4.2. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

5. Pre-clearance of trades

5.1. All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open, shall do so only after obtaining pre-clearance from the Compliance officer, when the value of the proposed trade taken together with the other trades executed in a calendar quarter exceeds 50,000 Securities or up to Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) or 1% of total shareholding, whichever is less. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

(i) The application for Pre-clearance shall be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure-1) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which the applicant has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required.

(ii) An undertaking in the prescribed format (Annexure 2) shall be executed by the applicant in favor of the Company.

(iii) The order for pre-clearance shall granted be in Annexure-3, which the compliance officer may grant upon scrutiny of the application and on the basis of the undertaking furnished by the applicant.

(iv) Upon receipt of pre-clearance the applicant shall execute the transaction within 7 (seven) trading days of the receipt of the order, failing which the applicant will have to make fresh application for pre-clearance.

(v) The applicant shall:

a. where the trade is executed, within 2 (two) working days of execution of the trade; or
b. where the trade is not executed, within 7 (seven) working days from the date of the approval, file a report with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Annexure 4).

c. All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (contra trade) for any number of Securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades, pursuant to exercise of stock options or in accordance with an approved trading plan.

d. The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

6. Other Restrictions

6.1. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

6.2. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

6.3. The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.
